SPLAT'S THE WAY TO DO IT

The Julie Rose Stadium will once again host the cream of European paintball experts later this year.
Find out how you could take part. FULL STORY - SEE PAGE 3

EXCLUSIVE

BY ED HILL

IT'S been delayed by 18 months and its big budget toppled to the tune of £5 million, but this weekend finally sees the opening of the new Stour Centre.

And today you can have an exclusive peak around it, thanks to your brightest new local newspaper - Yourashford.

Our TV camera crews have been granted access to the £17m sports centre before its official opening on Saturday.

Which means you can cast your eyes over the new pool complex, complete with two flumes, teaching and fitness pools, as well as a high-tech gym, and decide for yourself whether it has been money well spent. Just by logging-on to our new, free, website.

The delayed opening of the centre in Tannery Lane will finally bring some cheer to a project which has been bogged down by negative headlines and could still yet end up in a messy legal wrangle as the council looks to reclaim some of its over-spend from the contractors employed to construct the site.

Yet council chiefs say once open it will create

Barker has eye on the Booker Prize

■ BY ED HILL

AN EPIC novel set in Ashford could be on the verge of securing one of the literary world's most prestigious prizes.

Nicola Barker's novel Darkmans was confirmed on the final six-strong shortlist for the Man Booker Prize at the end of last week.

And a flurry of activity at the book-makers has seen the work become second favourite to win the award.

She sits behind Ian McEwan and his 200-page book, Chesil Beach.

Ms Barker's effort, however, weighs in at an impressive 838-pages.

Barker took four years to write the novel and spent much of that time in Ashford researching the book.

The author says she chose the town because, "the place is so mobile, I felt I could make things happen here. It gave me a sense of possibilities. It was the ideal contemporary setting for my characters".

This is not the first book that Barker has set in the county. Her 1998 novel, Wide Open, which won an International Literary award in Dublin in 2000, used the Isle of Sheppey as the backdrop for her characters.

She has also won the David Higham Prize for Fiction and was joint winner of the Macmillan Silver Pen Award for Love Your Enemies, her first collection of stories.

Her second story collection, Heading Inland, received the John Llewellyn Rhys/Mail on Sunday prize.

In 2004, she narrowly missed out on making the shortlist of the Man Booker Prize with her book Clear.

Barker, 41, was born in Cambridge and now lives and works in East London.

Described as a 'very modern book about two very old-fashioned subjects; love and jealousy' the characters in The Darkmans include a history-obsessed hospital laundry worker, a drug-dealing Middle English expert and a Kurdish refugee with a fear of salad.

The Darkman in the tale is Edward IV's court jester John Scogin, who haunts the modern characters of the book. Barker became fascinated by the legend around Scogin, who would supposedly trick groups of beggars into a barn, lock the doors and then set fire to it.

Other books shortlisted include: The Gathering by Anne Enright, The Reluctant Fundamentalist by Mohsin Hamid, Mister Pip by Lloyd Jones and Animal's People by Indra Sinha.

The winner of the Man Booker Prize will be unveiled at a special ceremony on October 16.

yourashford NEWS IN BRIEF

New doctor's surgery rejected by planners

AN APPLICATION to build a doctor's surgery in the centre of Biddenden has been rejected by council planners.

Plans for the site in the High Street were rejected by members of the Ashford council planning committee during a recent meeting. They said the plans lacked suitable parking spaces for both visitors and staff.

It was also felt the additional pressure on Biddenden High Street would be unacceptable.

Flats will come down for new homes

A BLOCK of flats in Otterden Close, Stanhope is to be demolished to make way for 30 new homes as part of the on-going work to transform the estate.

The scheme was given the green light at a recent meeting of the Ashford council planning committee.

The development by Gleeson Homes complies with the Stanhope Regeneration brief and will include new landscaping of roads, footpaths and cycleways.

Kick-boxer in need of sponsor to aid title bid

AN ESTATE agent hopes be hanging up his suit for a pair of shorts and boxing gloves to compete in this year's USKBA World Amateur Kickboxing Championships.

But Matthew Guilbert, 24, from Ashford, needs to raise £1,000 in sponsorship so he can take on the world's top competitors in the three-day event in New York next month.

To sponsor Mr Guilbert contact Colin Payne at info@tkokickboxing.co.uk.

No problems so far at new traffic lights

TRAFFIC lights on the newly-transformed roundabout at junction 10 of the M20 were finally turned on last Thursday – and it seems, so far, so good.

The works took nearly a year to complete and sparked debate over whether the lights should be scrapped altogether.

A Highways Agency spokesman said: "The lights have been fully operational throughout the weekend and at peak times and no problems were reported."

At last family can grieve over Ashley

DNA tests prove body was their son

■ BY ED HILL

THE FATHER of Ashley Dighton says he can now start the mourning process after police confirmed it WAS his son's body discovered close to the Sainsbury's store in the Warren Retail Park.

It has taken close to two months to confirm the body was that of the missing 19-year-old – but on Monday DNA tests finally put an end to the speculation.

Now his father hopes the police investigation will result in those responsible being caught.

Speaking to this newspaper from his home in Nine Acres, Kennington, Ambrose Dighton, 50, said: "Now I know it was my son for sure I can get on and give him the send off he deserves."

"I hope that now they know it is Ashley this will help with the investigation and that they get somebody for it soon."

FUNERAL: Ashley Dighton will finally be laid to rest at a private service in Kennington

His son was last seen on June 11 on his way to the supermarket in Simone Weil Avenue. His body was discovered a month later in nearby woodland and triggered a three-week investigation involving nearly 100 police officers.

Mr Dighton said: "Ashley was a good boy. He used to spend a lot of time down at the skate park. He will be sadly missed."

"If there's anyone out there who know anything they should contact the police. The family would be very grateful. This has been a terrible tragedy for us and we need answers."

Police are now renewing their appeal for witnesses. They particularly want to talk to anyone who saw Ashley between 2pm and 4pm on the day he was last spotted at the store or behind the supermarket on the walkway through the woods known as 'the Dip'.

Acting Detective Chief Inspector Dave Withers, who is leading the investigation, said: "We now know for sure that it was Ashley."

"Although Ashley's family suspected the worst, having to wait for the outcome of the scientific tests has been a distressing time for them."

His funeral will take place on September 24 at St Mary's Church in Kennington.

Anyone with information should call 01622 654860 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

positive waves across the borough.

Mark Carty, head of cultural services for the council, told YourAshford: "When you take on an ambitious project there can be problems. This is a landmark building and we want to show the standard of building that can and should be built in Ashford."

Doors open at 11am on Saturday for the public to finally access the facilities, with council chiefs praying for no hitches to further take the shine off what should be a major new addition to the town's leisure facilities.

Councillor Gerry Clarkson, portfolio holder for cultural services, said: "When you build a state-of-the-art facility like this you are going to run into difficulties."

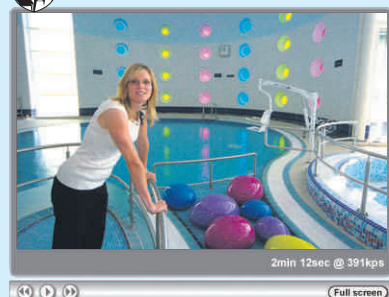

"We will have to address those matters, but those problems will be forgotten by those using the facility in six months time. They will have something that will endure."

Entry on Saturday will cost £1, with free parking all day. Big crowds are expected.

Bank Street delays as work begins

THE LATEST phase in Ashford's bid to lure more shoppers to its town centre got underway this week with a major overhaul of Bank Street.

A strict new 20mph speed limit has been imposed and work to improve the paving to make it more pedestrian friendly.

Council chiefs have insisted disruption to motorists will be kept to a minimum during the eight-month period the work will take to complete, although they have warned the road will be subject to some closures.

Bus services have already started being diverted into Church Road.

And the face-lift for the town doesn't end there.

In October, work will also begin on creating a new look for Elwick Road and converting the roundabout in Victoria Way to a traffic-signal controlled junction.

This is intended to help open up access to the south of the railway and create safer routes for pedestrians.

Plans of the works will be put on display in the High Street at the end of the month.

Stadium in sights as paintballers flock from Europe

■ BY ED HILL

PAINTBALL enthusiasts from across Europe will be descending on the Julie Rose Stadium later this year as the town once again becomes the focus of international competition.

The venue will host the Euro 5 Man championships between November 10-11 with more than 50 teams taking part.

Duncan Farber from Extreme Mayhem, promoters of the event said: "This competition attracts teams from Holland, Denmark, Norway and France."

"This really is a European event; that's not just some flash title."

In addition to the fast-paced action, a string of entertainment around the event is being organised – including wall climbing, go-karting and a bungee trampoline, as organisers look to attract a family audience.

The highlight is expected to be an eagerly anticipated clash between reigning UK champions the Scottish Warriors and a team made up of Ghurkhas from their base in Folkestone.

The event is no stranger to the town and is the fifth time it has hosted the tournament.

The Julie Rose Stadium trust chairman, Peter Davison, said: "We are thrilled the championships have returned again."

"This event contributes to the broad range of activities and events the trust wishes to offer to the people of Ashford."

Anyone who wants to enter a team themselves can do so by going to the website www.euro5man.com.

Tickets for the event can be bought from the Stour Centre box office or online.

They cost £5. Admission is free for under-16s.

New poll is your chance to have a say on bus services

A SURVEY has been commissioned to discuss how existing bus services are serving the town and surrounding villages.

Transport specialists Jacobs UK have been commissioned to conduct the research among parish councils and community groups.

David Coates from Jacobs said: "There has been considerable interest in the survey. We will be publishing a draft report in October to present to the clients."

It has been commissioned by Kent County Council, Ashford council and Ashford's Future.

Charity event expected to draw a host of classic cars

AMERICAN car enthusiasts will be staging a charity cruise on September 30 in aid of the charity Miles-of-Smiles.

The Left Hookers cruise hopes to attract over 100 hundred classic cars, bikes and scooters. The event will leave the Riverside Diner in Ashford at approximately 1pm and make its way to the charity's care home, Footprints, in Canterbury.

Left Hookers secretary Gloria Rice said: "There will be trophies for best car, best bike and most outrageous trike."

For more information call 01233 731113 or email lefthookerglo@aol.com.

Village voted 'simply the best' at 2007 competition

SMARDEN has just been voted the best village of 2007.

The village was in competition with 14 others from around the country and has recently opened the new Charter Hall, around which many of the community activities take place.

It won outright for the categories of Community Life and Information Technology and was runner up in the business and older people sections.

Alex Ferris said: "We are delighted with the decision."

Euro Mobility Week aims to raise public's awareness

AS part of the Euro Mobility Week, Shopmobility in Ashford will be holding a disability awareness day next Monday.

The event will take place in their Portakabin in the Vicarage Lane car park. The staff hope it will be an opportunity for the public to learn about some of the issues facing disabled people.

Supermarket bolsters falling milk prices

Farmer tells of his great white hope

A DAIRY farmer says he is just one of a few managing to buck a worrying trend which has forced milk producers across the county to sell at a loss.

And he says he is feeling a wave of confidence in the marketplace despite the problems of recent years which have seen the number of dairy farms across the UK slashed in half over the last decade.

Miles Alexander has 120 cows on his farm in Egerton. He said: "Up to April this year I was very depressed about the state of the market."

"However, I'd love to think there is a future in dairy farming. Certainly I feel more optimistic than I did three months ago."

Despite an increase in global demand for milk, the price paid for an average litre of the white stuff continues to plummet.

This summer's poor weather has not helped matters either, further reducing milk yields. In

■ BY ED HILL

1995 farmers were being paid on average 24.5 pence per litre for their milk. At the beginning of this year this had dropped to 18 pence.

He said: "The price being paid to us rises very slowly when the shop price goes up. But it seems to drop a lot quicker when prices go down."

"Our overheads are rising all the time. Feed has gone up by £30 a tonne in the last month."

But while frequently blamed for reducing the margins, it is a supermarket chain which has helped ease Mr Alexander's burden. Earlier this year he was chosen to supply milk for Tesco's new range of local milk.

He said: "It means I get paid a couple more pence per litre than my neighbours."

"Although we do have to supply milk that is of top quality and allow our farm to be inspected by Tesco to make sure our welfare and standards meet their requirements."

It's a small price to pay to stay solvent, however. Tesco announced it would be launching the new range in April. Demand from further afield too is helping boost the bottom line.

The farmer says: "There has been a general rise in the price of milk because of demand for milk powder and other products in places like India and China. It all helps."

Hunt is still on for ram-raiders

THE hunt for the crooks who demolished a building which contained two cash machines last Thursday at the Eureka Leisure Park is continuing - and you can see a full report on the raid on our new website (left).

The raiders smashed into the building using a digger, which they had stolen from a nearby business park site.

A passing police patrol saw the gang loading the machines on to the back of an open top 4x4. As the gang sped off one of the cash machines fell from the back of the vehicle with the money still inside.

The other empty cash machine was later recovered with the burnt out 4x4 in Hawkenbury near Maidstone.

The cash machines were between the Frankie and Benny's restaurant and the Bannatyne's health club at the leisure park.

The raid took place at 2.45am. A worker at Bannatyne's said: "Whoever did it must have been stupid because there's not much money in those machines, and there's CCTV everywhere. Not to mention the fact they have made a real mess."

Anyone with information can contact Ashford police on 01233 896 282.

Woodland targeted as green fuel

PIONEERING PROJECT: Nick Sandford, of Godinton House, has installed wood chip boilers to heat new offices

SOME of the town's top public buildings could be going green as nearby neglected woodland is transformed into a major source of renewable energy.

Council chiefs have commissioned a study of seven public buildings – among them the new Look Stour Centre and William Harvey Hospital – to see if they could be heated by burning wood chips in specially designed boilers.

If it gets the go-ahead it will mean a cheaper alternative to existing oil and gas supplies. One tonne of wood chips costing around £50 can provide the same amount of energy as 400 litres of heating oil – which costs £165.

The council is already installing the boilers to heat the Singleton Environment centre due to open next spring.

With coppiced woodland now under utilised after once providing material for hop poles and fences, it is hoped that if it catches on it could provide vital fuel.

It is estimated that 10,000 tonnes of fuel could be available within a 25-mile radius of the town every year.

■ BY ED HILL

If it were to prove a success, it could even be rolled out to heat entire new housing developments set to be built around the town.

The initial cost of the boilers is higher than the conventional alternatives, but this is soon reclaimed due to the cheaper fuel.

Nick Sandford who manages the Godinton House estate has decided to install the new boilers in converted farm buildings to heat new offices. He said: "It cost us around £14,000 more to install the system, but the fuel is around two-thirds cheaper."

Mr Sandford uses the estate's own woodland to provide the fuel for the system.

He said: "What we need are more high profile projects and local authorities to back this technology to help encourage the industry. There is a huge untapped resource of woodland in the county. This is a virtually carbon neutral fuel."

"We just need to get over the initial stages of uncertainty. I am sure in ten years time we will be taking this technology for granted."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Chaos ensues for hours as sparks fly after car crash

A CAR crash in Challock resulted in 19 homes losing their electricity supply last Wednesday evening – as well as a massive headache for motorists trying to use the popular route during the evening rush hour.

The accident happened at 4.55pm on the A251 near the Halfway House pub.

The car collided with a telegraph pole causing the power lines to be brought down. Two elderly occupants of the car were taken to hospital with minor injuries.

The road was reopened by police at 7.30pm, but not before queues stretched miles in either direction as motorists were forced to look for alternative routes home.

EDF energy spokesman Niamh Arnett said: "For safety reasons engineers isolated supplies to 19 customers at 6pm in order to safely work on our equipment."

"We restored supplies to all but six of our customers within 30 minutes. Staff worked on the repairs throughout the night to reconnect remaining supplies as quickly as possible."

Barn dance is open to all those with two left feet

A FAMILY-friendly fund-raising barn dance will take place in Kingsnorth on Saturday.

The event will raise money for the friends of Kingsnorth and Shadoxhurst parish churches.

It starts at 7.30pm and parents are encouraged to come with their children in tow.

Area Dean and organiser Sheila McLachlan said: "All you need is two flat shoes and two left feet."

Tickets for the dance cost £4 for adults or £10 for a family.

For details contact 01233 620433.

Council gives £1,000 and says 'on your bike' to staff

COUNCIL workers are being offered £1,000 to buy a brand new bike in a bid to boost sustainable travel.

The cash incentive is being offered by Ashford chiefs to allow staff to buy bikes and safety equipment – although every penny must be repaid.

In a bid to promote health and greener transport, staff can take advantage of the offer if they agree to pay it all back in installments.

The scheme means staff can save up to 50 per cent on the cost of a bike by claiming VAT, income tax and National Insurance benefits.

QUESTION & ANSWER

RITA HAWES

Q When and how did your connection with Ashford begin?

A I moved to Ashford in Sept 1957 to take up a teaching post at what was then Ashford Grammar School for Girls (now Highworth). I remained there until my retirement.

Q How has the town changed over the years that you have been here?

A When I arrived the by-pass had just opened and people were celebrating the loss of the traffic jams which had blocked the High Street. But still the double-decker Ashford to Maidstone buses used to get stuck at the corner of Castle Street and the High Street.

I loved the variety of shops – The Pie Shop where we bought newly baked fruit pies, Crammeries where we had afternoon tea, Lewis and Hylands the drapers and many more. All were individual and service was excellent or was it just me comparing it with London?

It was still a real market town with animals being taken through on Tuesday morning and even the horse and cart coming along the Canterbury Road on its way from Wye.

Times have changed. The coming of the ring road saw rows of houses demolished but it meant the increasing traffic could move and eventually traffic stopped passing through the High Street and it became pedestrianised. A good move. By this time the High Street shops had become clones of the multiples and the town had changed. But times change again and small shops are beginning to return and when County Square opens next spring the town will be invigorated.

Q What do you hope we will see in the future for Ashford?

A I hope the many changes taking place will result in a town with a sense of community, where people can feel part of the place, working there as well as shopping and spending leisure hours.

Young people will need opportunities for education and leisure activities. I should like to see a university campus and a greater choice of cultural activities but the link with the surrounding countryside must not be lost.

Ashford is a town in beautiful surroundings, no longer principally a market town or a railway town but a town with a great future in the 21st century

Q What do you think the mayor's role is in the community?

A The mayor is the Queen's representative in the borough. As such I represent her on ceremonial occasions such as remembrance parades and civic functions. I also represent the borough at events elsewhere. In my non-political role I chair the council meetings.

But that is the formal aspect – I act as a link between the council and the public. I take every opportunity that is offered to meet with residents both young and old, fit and frail because that is appreciated. Mayoral recognition gives support to communities and charity events. I admire the work that groups and individuals achieve and I enjoy being able to give them publicity. To be mayor is a privilege.

Q Ashford will be a major transport link between London and Europe. Are you a Europhile?

A Yes – I consider the days of being outside Europe are past. This does not mean that I consider that our identity should be lost but international travel and trade mean that we need to work together in many fields.

Q What do you like about modern life? What do you dislike?

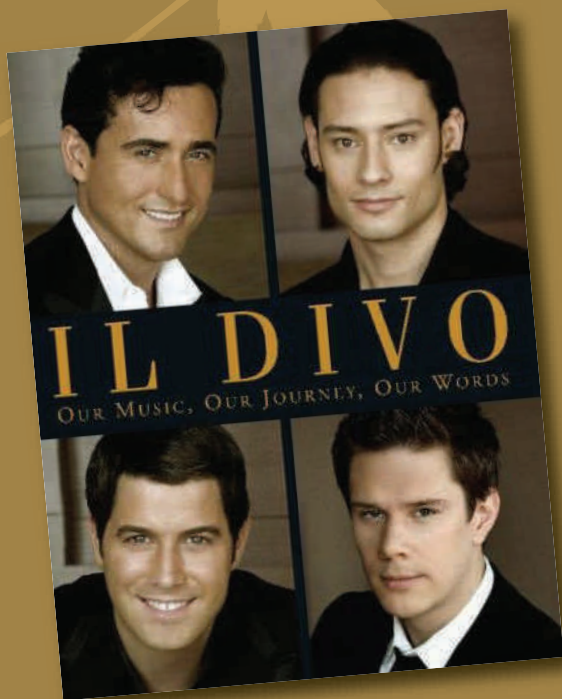

A Greater opportunities and choice. Medical advances which improve the quality of life for many; I dislike the perception of danger which is inhibiting children's lives; the overuse of the car; the misuse of the internet; and cruelty in any form.

Q Do you have a secret hobby or interest people might be surprised to learn about?

A No, I am afraid not. Too many people know I garden and walk the dog.

Mayor Rita Hawes discusses with Ed Hill her life and times in the town and how Ashford has changed since she arrived in 1957. She also reveals her hopes for the future of an ever evolving town

Drugs giant makes job cuts

PHARMACEUTICAL giant Pfizer is axing more than 400 jobs at its Sandwich manufacturing site.

The drugs firm announced plans to phase out around 420 jobs over the next two years as it ends its manufacturing operations in the town.

MP for South Thanet and former Pfizer employee, Steve Ladyman, was quick to criticise the job cuts and vowed to work hard to ease the pain of staff.

He said: "I'm really disappointed with Pfizer to be frank. This is dreadful news. The men and women who work in manufacturing at Sandwich have made a massive contribution to the growth of Pfizer over decades.

■ BY TOM BETTS

"This is no way for the company to treat them.

"At one time loyalty to their staff was a watchword at Pfizer, but in these days of global trading and global manufacturing loyalty to the workforce and local communities doesn't seem to count for much.

"It is also a blow to our local community as these are high quality jobs that we can ill afford to lose. This decision will impact the whole of east Kent."

The Sandwich site has been making ingredients for use in human and veterinary medicines over the last 53 years, but announced the cuts on Tuesday.

Pfizer employs 90,000 people worldwide and is the world's largest research-based pharmaceutical company.

The Sandwich site's manufacturing leader, Colin Seller, said: "This decision is no reflection on the performance of our workforce at Sandwich. We recognise this may be a difficult time for colleagues and our priority now, and over the coming weeks and months, is to support our people through this process.

"Pfizer remains committed to its research and development programme at Sandwich which, as announced earlier this year, is one of Pfizer's four key global research and development sites."

Tony Maddaluna, vice-president of Pfizer Global Manufacturing said: "This is the latest in a number of global changes, to ensure we are operating as efficiently and effectively as possible."

Historic Medway street put up for sale by Church

A CAMPAIGN to save Britain's most historic street begins today.

Minor Canon Row in Rochester was used in some of author Charles Dickens' greatest works.

It was the setting for his final and unfinished work The Mystery of Edwin Drood and also appears in The Seven Poor Travellers.

Now owners the Diocese of Rochester have been forced to put the street on the market.

Council staff allowed to network via Facebook

MEDWAY council has gone against the national trend banning staff from accessing social networking internet sites at work.

Medway NHS Trust this week joined a number of high-profile organisations including Kent County Council in restricting workers from logging on to Facebook and MySpace during office hours.

But Medway council bosses have decided they do not need to ban their staff, but have stressed they should only check personal messages during breaks or after work.

Post offices set to be hit by massive cuts

MAIDSTONE and its surrounding villages look set to bear the brunt of swingeing cuts in post offices as the Government axes services.

With a total of 32 small branches in and around the county town, post masters fear for their futures with an announcement expected in November.

This week Maidstone council condemned the plans as "totally unacceptable" - even before a proposed consultation takes place.

Maidstone begins the six-week procedure, scheduled to start on September 17.

Daughter of superbug victim talks about her health campaign

Plea for NHS to clean up its act

THE daughter of a World War Two veteran killed by a hospital superbug today launched a campaign for better treatment of patients by the NHS.

Former Sergeant Joseph Nixon, 87, survived the Dunkirk evacuation, but was defeated by the dirty conditions at Maidstone Hospital.

He caught clostridium difficile after a routine operation.

To honour his memory his daughter Jackie, 46, is launching a nationwide campaign to stop any other patients suffering like him.

The Humane Campaign calls for a number of urgent changes to stop vulnerable people wasting away and contracting killer bugs like MRSA and C diff. These are:

- Better cleaning of hospital wards and changing dirty bed linen more regularly to stop patients' wounds getting infected.
- Stimulating the elderly with access to radio and TV so they do not give up and succumb to superbugs.
- Providing better nutrition in hospital food.
- Allowing families greater access to their relatives to keep them happy, help feed them and clean them.

Mrs Nixon said: "I have to stop people suffering like my father did - I owe it to his memory."

Outlet invests £1m in foodcourt re-vamp

THE Ashford Designer Outlet is splashing out £1m on redeveloping its foodcourt.

The project, which got underway last week, includes improving the seating and eating area with new food outlets opening up in the section. Work is expected to be complete in mid-November.

Centre manager, Greg Lumley, said: "Our foodcourt redevelopment will make dining at the outlet even more comfortable and enjoyable."

Sainsbury's compost caddy hand-out

AS of today, anyone buying one roll of Sainsbury's home composting caddy liners from their local store will receive a free compost caddy.

Bags from the green boxes can then go direct into compost heaps or bins and biodegrade within 60 days.

The two-week offer is designed to help tackle the county's contribution to the UK's 5,375,000 tons of food waste.

More than 150,000 of the caddies will be handed out nationally.

Author gives a rare book signing session

INTERNATIONAL best-selling children's author Garth Nix will give a rare book-signing session for his latest novel at Bluewater's Waterstone's on Sunday.

The Australian writer will meet his fans and sign copies of Shade's Children, as well as back copies of his other books, in the store's Guild Hall from midday.

The store's events co-ordinator Stuart Lewis said: "Nix is one of today's leading children's authors and we sell his books by the bucket-load."

Cheers! Wine to match the Rugby World Cup

SUPERMARKETS and off-licences are getting into the swing of things to mark the Rugby World Cup, which got underway at the weekend.

Independent online wine guide www.lovethatwine.co.uk has compiled a list of suitable drinks to sup during the sporting extravaganza.

They include, to mark the French hosts, a 2005 Caves Saint-Pierre Prefence Vacqueyras (between £7-10). See the website for more details.

Brooks jets in for Waterstone's visit

BEST-SELLING author Terry Brooks will fly in from the US for an exclusive signing-session of his new book The Elves of Cintra at Bluewater's Waterstone's next Wednesday.

The leading fantasy writer will be at the store to meet his fans and autograph the latest instalment in his Genesis of Shannara trilogy from 5.30pm.

Chris Yates, Waterstone's science fiction buyer said: "This is a rare opportunity to meet a writing legend. A signed Terry Brooks book is a must-have."

WIN! A space-age Memory Foam bed worth £2,400

from The County Bed Company

PLUS: Runner-up prizes of £10 gift vouchers compliments of yourashford.co.uk

SEALY helps you get the temperature right in bed.

Too hot? Not hot enough? The new Sealy Mirrorform bed, with its revolutionary temperature-regulating technology, means an end to uncomfortable night sweats and shivers.

KOS Media has teamed up with The County Bed Company in Strood and Sealy to offer the chance to win a new Sealy Mirrorform bed worth up to £2,400.

Incorporating NASA-inspired Outlast Technology, developed to protect astronauts from temperature fluctuations, the special microcapsules in this amazing new bed absorb excess heat that can be released back to the body later if needed.

It even has the ability to adjust to the individual body temperature of two users.

This means that sleeping on a Sealy Mirrorform bed ensures a constant micro-climate that regulates the in-bed temperature to ensure the perfect night's sleep, all year round.

There are four models in the range to suit all size and comfort requirements, all featuring a luxurious soft-touch velour cover with a zonal quilt design and an advanced pressure-relieving, multi-layer Memory Foam layer that enhances support for perfect spinal alignment.

The Outlast Technology reduces temperature swings and influences the comfort zone efficiently, providing you with a perfect temperature for sleeping.

The Outlast microcapsules that are built into Sealy's Mirrorform beds absorb excess heat to reduce the climate's temperature. But as the excess heat has been absorbed it can be released back to the body if needed.

The latest collection, which is unique to Sealy and the UK, has been significantly re-designed to offer a fabulous look, more choice and a new, technically advanced memory core.

All models feature:

- A luxurious soft touch velour cover with a zonal quilt design
- Continuous air-mesh surround providing perfect ventilation
- An advanced multi-layer memory supply system
- Optimum comfort and ventilation
- Pressure relieving memory layer to enhance support for perfect spinal alignment.

To enter this great competition, simply answer the question:

Q) What is the name of the new revolutionary temperature regulating Sealy bed?

Send your entry on a postcard along with your email address (if applicable), name, address, and daytime telephone number to: The County Bed Comp, KOS Media, Apple Barn, Smeeth, Ashford, Kent, TN25 6SR.

You can also text your answer to 81800, by sending BED, followed by a space, the answer, a space and your name and address.

Messages cost 25p plus standard network charges. The service is provided by g8wave London N7. Closing Date is October 15, 2007.

To see our full range of Memory Foam products, visit us at The County Bed Company, 133 High Street, Strood, ME2 4TJ, or call us on 01634 722228.

“ Imagine a school which develops the God given talents in each individual ”

Imagine a school where state-of-the-art interactive learning materials are available anytime, anywhere; where students and teachers collaborate online; where mobile phones help students learn.

Imagine a school which develops the God given talents in each individual; a school built on a foundation of Christian values which inform the 'habits and rhythms' of our lives together; a school where all agree to be kind, co-operative, hard working and responsible.

Whether in the classroom, the sport's field or the after-school club, all make innovative use of technologies available to support learning. We understand the benefits technology can bring to a modern, successful school and continue to invest widely in a range of new technologies, proven to transform learning. From our school-wide wireless computer network to our electronic in-class student feedback system, technology pervades our school, giving our students a measurable advantage.

Imagine a school where learning is fun... Imagine Ashford Christ Church.

Our Values

One of the most significant things Christ Church students were asked to give their opinions on this year was the values they thought were most important in school.

An online poll was conducted and students were asked to put seventeen different values in order of importance.

The results of the students' poll were combined with the results of a similar poll of staff and the top four values were selected as being of particular importance at Ashford

Christ Church. We all agreed to be:

*Kind
Hard working Cooperative Responsible*

Posters now display our values in every classroom to help keep them in the front of everyone's mind.

student VOICE

This year has seen Student Voice elevated to the top of Christ Church's improvement agenda. Assistant Headteacher, John Ashford explains what has been happening to help make children heard.

Student voice is involving students in running their school and is potentially the most powerful tool available for personalising learning.

For many years those who have researched student perspectives on school and learning have been astonished at the mature and serious way the vast majority of students, even the most disengaged and alienated, talk about their experience of learning and schooling. It would be meaningless to say that we are personalising learning without involving them in the process.

Christ Church started its quest for student involvement last summer by holding a student conference to agree our school's values. Around forty students took part. After that, they presented their ideas to school assemblies explaining why each value was important.

Students and staff then completed an online questionnaire, where they rated values in order of merit. Those with the highest score were adopted by the school.

This improved student proactivity can be seen working elsewhere too. The formation of a student council, with representatives from each community and each year has provided a conduit for all students to make their views known.

Online surveys are now an important part of school life, with iPods and other prizes on offer to make sure the democratic process is not just fair, but also fun!

Students can now be seen in support roles as peer mentors, prefects and learning assistants. They also play an active role in the recruitment process by helping to interview new teachers.

First on the agenda for Student Voice this year is a complete overhaul of the school's rewards system. Other projects include increasing student involvement in curriculum choice and in peer and self assessment.

Looking further into the future, Student Voice will mean ever greater student participation in the running of schools as well as deciding what, how and even when they learn.

How long will it be before we have student governors and teachers? And how long after that before a student chair of governors or head teacher? Watch this space!

Each week we get a mystery writer to air their views on living in the district of Ashford...

Why new centre will carry the weight of a generation

WHEN I was a child, a leisure centre meant far more than simply a place to go and earn your 25m swimming badge.

Back then, when going to pubs was a distant dream and puberty had not installed a sense of mortal dread at exposing any part of your bare body in front of the opposite sex, they were pretty much a hive of social activity.

From providing an introduction to video games, through the lumpy old machines which would stand in the foyer, to simply a place to take shelter during the rain, they offered a public place where you could meet far from the glare of parents and gain a little independence.

Even today, the sights and smells of those times all those years ago can conjure up an image in my mind at the slightest whiff of chlorine or jangle of a locker key.

Memories of school-day swimming lessons, or Saturday mornings where a swim acted purely as a pre-cursor to ploughing 10p pieces into the latest video game (and back then we were talking the cutting-edge spills and thrills of Space Invaders and PacMan) while a soaking wet towel began a seven-day festering period in a holdall, still seem fresh.

And if there was any pocket money left, 20p would secure a portion of chips drenched in a vinegar where the smell would go directly up your nostrils to irritate your brain and bring water to your eyes... (the calories lost fooling about in the pool immediately regained, and then some).

In fact, it was remarkable at just how easy it was to develop the fast-food, couch potato existence that so many of us would take in to later life... and all from a place devoted to getting fit.

But as if you paced yourself properly, you could get pretty much a whole day's entertainment.

Of course, back then water slides were the preserve of expensive looking holidays to America and a jacuzzi sounded more like an Italian car than a big bath with bubbles.

With all that in mind, it is, therefore, with eager anticipation I look forward to the opening of the new Stour Centre.

Because for the next generation the £17 million all-singing, all-dancing facility will no doubt be the location of choice as the autumn draws in and the weather, well, the weather continues to be dark and miserable.

For them, the glass-fronted centre will be the stuff of their memories in 20 years time – but at least theirs will be of a facility which is modern, clean and exciting.

They will not have to look back at a facility where hygiene is nice idea and verrucas are obligatory.

No more will the entertainment be reserved to stinking chips, or the poster warning of 'no bombing or heavy petting'.

It may have been delayed, it may have cost a fortune, it will, almost inevitably, suffer some early teething troubles... but it is place which will live in the memories of everyone – and Ashford needs more places like that.

TALK TIME

CLAIRE WALLINGTON

Claire Wallington manager of Shopmobility in County Square, gives her view on Ashford and a topical news story.

What do you like about living in Ashford?

It's near some lovely countryside and the coast. It's also quite handy for hopping over to France, plus I know a lot of people here. There is a really strong voluntary sector in Ashford which is encouraging. I'm not sure about the new ring road. I don't think that they have put the traffic lights in the right place because when I am queuing at the lights I can never see them properly.

What do you do to entertain yourself?

I love it when they have cultural events – especially multicultural events. They had one last year called Around the World and one this year called International Day. I was involved in the planning stages of both of those. I do enjoy learning about other cultures. We've got a very strong group of voluntary ethnic minority organisations. Whenever there is anything happening in the arts in Ashford I like to get involved with it.

What do you think about Pavarotti's death?

I'm quite saddened by it because he brought a lot of people to opera who would not have taken an interest in it otherwise. I suppose that was because of his association with football and the fact that he worked as part of the Three Tenors. I also think he helped a lot of young people. He was a typical Italian – there was something so expansive and expressive and larger than life about him. He really will be missed.

• Shopmobility is a disabled access scheme that allows disabled shoppers to get around Ashford by hiring electric scooters and wheelchairs.

The charity is funded by the Community Fund and Ashford Council. To book a scooter or a wheelchair you can call the centre on 01233 650063.

YOUR LETTERS

A few words of congratulations

"I AM delighted to see this new service set up for Ashford. This is a fast-growing town, and it needs every means possible of communicating its message to the rest of the country and the world."

Damian Green, Ashford MP and Shadow Immigration Minister

"THIS promises to be an innovative form of media publishing. May it do well for its own sake and be of benefit to the town itself and villages around. "Good luck Yourmaidstone."

Maidstone artist Graham Clarke

"I WISH KOS Media the very best with their new venture. Local news for residents to engage with is an important part of creating a flourishing community and I look forward to the contribution Yourmedway will make."

The very Rev Adrian Newman, Dean of Rochester

"GOOD luck with the new paper. The district has some lovely towns and lovely people and a very active and vociferous community. Look forward to hearing further from you."

Jeannie Law, deputy leader of Canterbury council and councillor for Seasalter

"GREAT news! I was delighted when I heard about the launch of

YOUR NEW PAPERS

Welcome to the very first edition of your new local paper which for the first time opens both newspapers and television to local journalism in one place.

As well as the paper you hold in your hand, we are offering a totally new broadband television service for you. And it's all free.

By simply logging on to www.yourashford.co.uk you can share your favourite videos with readers, get your news as it happens and more importantly, tell other people what is going on.

Yourashford intends to give you a voice reflecting the issues and concerns of everyone in your town. You can email us, text message us, phone us... or even use simple letters via the Royal Mail.

But we do want to hear from you. We would like to see your pictures and we want to see your videos. These are YOUR newspapers, and YOUR websites. We hope you will enjoy using them and contributing to them.

This is just one of eight newspapers and websites that KoS Media – publishers of the award-winning Kent on Sunday and the Saturday Observer – has launched today across the county.

Our launch has already been met with a positive response and here are a few of the emails we've received all ready.

Yourshepway. KOS Media has already helped raise the county's newspaper standards to an unprecedented level, so I'm confident Yourshepway will add to the media in Folkestone, Hythe and indeed across the district. Welcome to Shepway – this is the start of a great partnership."

Chris Kirkham from Discover Folkestone

"IT is an exciting venture and it will be very good for Canterbury, Herne Bay and Whitstable to have a reporter assigned to the area. I look forward to meeting you in the future."

Ann Taylor, councillor for Reculver on Canterbury council

"CONGRATULATIONS on this initiative. I hope that Maidstone readers will warm to the theme of Yourmaidstone. I am greatly looking forward to seeing the first copy and logging onto the website."

Maidstone and Weald MP Ann Widdecombe

"WE are delighted with this new venture for Ashford. I wish it every success. I look forward to seeing its contribution to Ashford and to the growing communities around Ashford."

The very Rev Sheila McLachlan, the Dean of Ashford

"MEDWAY is an exciting and vibrant place with lots of interesting things happening that are worthy of headline news. My best wishes go to the Yourmedway newspaper. I'm looking forward to reading it every week."

Medway council leader Rodney Chambers

"GOOD luck with the new paper – it sounds exciting! We always welcome more coverage of our area."

Ida Linfield, councillor for Westgate on Canterbury council

Ali Wheeler
James and Ali's Morning Show, Invicta FM

"CONGRATULATIONS to Yourthanet. Kent on Sunday has been a huge success and I have no doubt that Yourthanet will be just as successful.

"A vibrant, competitive local media is essential in a modern democracy – not just to keep us all informed about what is happening in our community but also to make sure that everyone can have their say.

"I look forward to watching Yourthanet play a key role in shaping our local debates and keeping us in touch with the exciting things that are happening in Thanet today.

Steve Ladyman, MP Thanet South

"CONGRATULATIONS, yet another great idea from KOS Media. A local paper for local people. Well done, I hope it's a storming success."

Shaun Williamson, Kent actor

"IT'S great to hear that there is going to be a new set of papers covering all the different aspects of life in our varied and exciting county.

"I've always been a great fan of the Saturday Observer and have loved getting to the fast track of the world of celebrity as the resident gossip columnist.

"We really do need a new voice across Kent to provide a way for people to get their views across, give talented artists the exposure they

Dave's back with a bangFunnyman gets back behind the drum kit to tour with his new band, The Bewildered Gentlemen

A LARGE PORTION OF DAVE LEE
Saturday, September 15
The Gulbenkian Theatre
Canterbury

COMEDIAN Dave Lee is returning to his rhythmic roots this month as his new band The Bewildered Gentlemen relive the swinging 60s.The larger-than-life comedian began his career behind a drum kit, and the nostalgic show, A Large Portion of Dave Lee, seeks to recreate the atmosphere of Lee's formative years.His handpicked band of session musicians are set to groove their way through some psychedelic favourites, interspersed with routines from the famous funny man.He said: "I started out on drums when I was 15, and was in and out of a few bands. Then Eric Morecambe said I had a good face for comedy, whatever that means, and it went on from there."When I first started, there was a group in every street in every town, and we all had a great time. I was out in Germany in the 60s and 70s like the Beatles and the Hollies were, and it was a special time. It'll be a chance to relive that."The Bewildered Gentlemen include a steel guitar and two keyboards, a line-up designed to faithfully recreate the all-important 60s sound. Lee is sure the audience will share his sense of nostalgia and certain his carefully picked covers will go some way to recreating the feel-good vibe.He said: "There are plenty of people as old as me about and still going strong,
but quite a lot of youngsters like the music from that era too."But Lee will not be spending the entire show with sticks in hand, and the popular stand-up will be doing just that in between sets.He said: "It's rock with laughter. We'll play a few songs with some comedy
in between."The Gulbenkian date is just the beginning. Lee is taking The Bewildered
Gentlemen on the road, and the Canterbury date
is the start of a national tour of small theatres
which will include
Maidstone's Hazlitt
Theatre and several other Kent dates.Supporting the gentlemen are Motown trio
Fancy 3, whom Lee describes as a sensational all-girl vocal group.A Large Portion of Dave Lee is at The Gulbenkian Theatre, University of Kent, Canterbury, on Saturday, September 15. The show starts at 7.45pm and tickets, costing £14, can be booked by phoning the box office on

KING'S WOOD SYMPHONY

Sunday, September 16, Kings Wood, Challock

The King's Wood Symphony is a new commission from Stour Valley Arts – creating a grand symphony in the forest itself.

The woodland near Challock already hosts a giant musical instrument which re-broadcasts the sounds of wind and rain through the trees. It was created by former Pogues' star Jem Finer and claims to be unique.

A spokesman explained: "In this performance the wood is used as inspiration, performance space and instrument in this piece, which creates a dialogue between the ancient woodland space and the contemporary urban environment."

The event takes place at 3pm.

HOBSON'S CHOICE

Until Friday, September 15
Marlowe Theatre, Canterbury

CLASSIC English comedy Hobson's Choice comes to the Marlowe Theatre this week.

The show stars John Savident, best known as Coronation Street's eccentric Fred Elliott.

The play concerns the subjects of class and gender and is set in Salford in 1880.

A spokesman for the production said: "This production is of a story which remains as radical and relevant as ever."

"Obstinate Henry Horatio Hobson runs a successful bootmaker's shop and is a widower with a weakness for a drink."

"He is always trying to get the better of his three daughters and he wants a 'no-marriage' policy to avoid paying a dowry."

"But eldest daughter Maggie is having none of it and she starts to rebel – setting her sights on her father's chief bootmaker, shy Will Mossop."

Tickets are priced between £10-£19, with evening shows at 7.30pm and matinees on Thursday at 2.30pm.

For more details log-on to www.marlowetheatre.com.

CHILHAM CASTLE TOUR

Monday, September 17, Chilham Castle, Chilham

A TOUR of Chilham Castle, with its spectacular park and garden, will take place on Monday.

The castle was bought by millionaire betting guru Stuart Wheeler, who has spent hundreds of thousands of pounds restoring the building.

Experts will be on hand to describe the history of the medieval keep, the exterior of the Jacobean house and grounds adapted by 'Capability' Brown, among others.

The tour starts at 2pm in Chilham village square. Tickets are £5 per head, with all proceeds going to the parish church of St Mary.

ASHFORD LEISURE

Evening of Belly-licious booty-shaking dance

TENTERDEN'S Sinden Theatre will be transformed into a Egyptian wonderland next week.

On Saturday, September 22 at 7.30pm it will host Belly-licious, an exotic evening of belly dancing and Egyptian music from the vibrant band Tricky Beats.

Proceeds from the evening will be donated to a new Sunshine International Organisation orphanage in Luxor.

Call the box office on 01580 763826, or visit www.sindentheatre.biz.

Comfy booths on offer at refurbished club

NIGHTCLUB Liquid & Envy is back with a bang after a half-a-million-pounds makeover.

New booths now provide comfortable seating, while the walls are decked out in modern décor. At last month's grand opening, Envy played disco and retro favourites, while upstairs in Liquid, Kiss FM's DJ EZ was playing garage classics.

Top DJs MC Neat, DJ Luck and Dave Pearce are booked to play the club in the coming months.

Indie short films to be screened at festival

THE Ashford Visual Arts and Architecture Festival is holding an independent short film night at the town's St Mary's Church on Thursday, September 20.

A mix of professional and amateur work will be on show, and there will also be interviews and discussions.

Chris Dixon, arts co-ordinator at Ashford council, said: "We look forward to seeing what people want to share with us – we just ask that it's appropriate for screening in a church."

Display a showcase for young designers

AN EXHIBITION of work by the Ashford School of Art and Design and Christ Church University takes place at the Eurostar international terminal building between September 17-28.

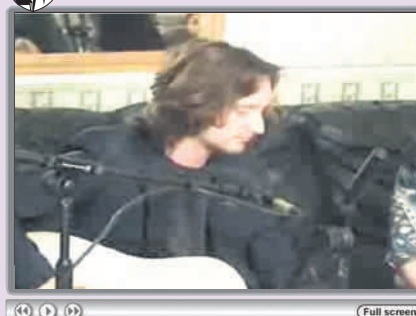

Entry is free. For further information contact Chris Dixon on 01233 330 352.

ON GENERAL RELEASE

EASTERN PROMISES

David Cronenberg's new film is a tale of a ruthless man (Viggo Mortensen), who is part of one of London's most notorious organised crime families. But his life changes when he crosses paths with a midwife (Naomi Watts). The film re-unites Mortensen with Cronenberg after the 2005 A History of Violence. Released from September 14.

SUPERBAD

Think you are Bad? Not as bad as this pair off to high school hoping to make it with the girls. Teen movie Superbad has been described as funnier, more subversive and more importantly, genuine movie than American Pie or any of its sequels. It's sweet, it's funny and it's established a load of new talent. In cinemas from September 14.

SHOOT 'EM UP

In Shoot 'Em Up Clive Owen plays a British nanny – and he's dangerous. Well, that what he claims in this epic film of gunplay based on John Woo's Hard Boiled classic. Take lots of guns, one man and a baby, and toss together until well and truly mixed up. Released on September 14

'I'm not in it for the fame'

■ BY EILEEN CONDON

HE'S the toast of Hollywood thanks to critically-acclaimed movies such as The Last King of Scotland and the Chronicles of Narnia – and he's starring in the new film Atonement alongside Keira Knightley.

But you won't find actor James McAvoy chasing the LA limelight.

The actor says he has a "pathological hatred" of celebrity culture and would run a mile rather than be photographed with the likes of Paris Hilton.

"We're so obsessed with celebrity and it's terrifying, I just don't care about who's wearing what or the nightclub you stumble out of," he said.

However, if anyone does have a right to hit the Hollywood party scene it's James. He's got a lot to celebrate. At just 28 he's risen rapidly from virtual unknown to one of the movie world's hottest talents.

After making his name in the popular Channel 4 comedy drama Shameless he progressed to the big screen in hit films such as Starter For Ten, Becoming Jane and his Bafta winning turn in The Last King Of Scotland.

Not surprisingly, the down-to-earth star is relishing every bit of his new-found status as Tinseltown's golden boy.

"It's really, really nice to be working," he smiles broadly. "That's the way I've always looked at it. It's always about the work."

"I'm very lucky that fantastic scripts have come up – you don't get them everyday. I've loved the fact I've been able to do such a range of different things."

"I always wanted to do an 80s comedy and

VIEW THIS PREVIEW

yourashford.co.uk

Starter For Ten came along and Last King Of Scotland was a different trip again. I've just appreciated the variety."

The Glasgow-born star insists he's not about to take any of it for granted though.

"You just say 'Thanks very much for this work' and hope that it continues, because it can all disappear as soon as it appears," he reasons. "You can't really count your chickens but you can be really grateful."

James, who now lives in North London, says his latest movie Atonement also helped him to rediscover his joy for acting.

Based on the acclaimed book by Ian McEwan, the film stars James as Robbie Turner, an idealistic young man whose world is turned upside down when a 13-year old childhood friend (Romola Garai) makes false accusations against him.

Set against the backdrop of World War Two,

GROUNDING: James McAvoy won't let fame affect him and filmed on location in Shropshire and Redcar; the movie also stars Vanessa Redgrave and looks like being another sure-fire hit for James.

McEwan has already heaped praise on the young star and James himself says making the film has been the highlight of his career so far.

"It was just deadly," he says gleefully. "It's definitely been the finest acting experience of my career. I loved the character of Robbie. He has empathy for everyone and forgiveness for everyone. Then something terrible happens to him and his world view changes from the most positive kind to a negative kind."

"He ends up fighting a bigger war than the one going on around him. He's fighting a war for his soul."

But though we'll be seeing a lot more of the talented star, you can guarantee it won't be on the party scene.

"I'm only doing my job. I'm absolutely not in it for the fame," he says. "Who I am isn't important. What I do is."

A trip to India's smallest state

■ BY GEORGINA RODGERS

HURLING along in our clapped-out 4x4 vehicle in the oppressive heat of the mid-morning sun, we swerve suddenly to avoid yet another wandering cow.

In Goa there are no road markings, few traffic lights and seemingly no right of way. The same rules, it seems, apply to the hordes of stray animals that appear only too happy to take a midday nap in the middle of the road.

Sweat clings to my forehead and I am trying hard to not think about the delicious rogan josh that I devoured the night before.

It seems like we have been travelling for days – in fact, checking my watch I realise it has only been two hours – but Goa's bumpy roads make even the shortest of journeys a bit of an ordeal.

As we emerge from an overgrown track, I realise the car journey was worth every minute. Before us stretch miles of golden sand as far as we can see. Palm trees reach up for the sky and the only noise we can hear is the sound of the Arabian Sea as it crashes rhythmically against the beach.

Most of our holiday was spent just lapping up the sun, swimming in the sea, eating delicious home-cooked food and aiming for complete relaxation. It wasn't hard – it was the perfect respite after leaving the damp UK behind.

The best time to visit India's smallest state is between the end of October and the end of

FAR FROM THE MADDING CROWD: Goa's beaches are among the finest in the world and well worth a visit

April, after which it becomes very humid and the monsoon rages. There is virtually no rain at all during the winter months and temperatures hit around 30°C every day.

Relaxing on beautiful beaches has always been Goa's main attraction – and given that the state boasts 100km of coast, there are plenty of deserted locations from Morjim and Aswem in the north to Vagator in the south.

For a busier sunbathing experience, head north to the bustling centres of Baga and Calangute, where you can bag yourself a bargain in one of many beachside shacks selling an array of jewellery, clothing and woodwork.

In fact, it is very hard to spend money here – you can satisfy your taste buds with a three-course meal for as little as £5, a large beer costs about 80p and you can even bag a made-to-measure silk shirt for £10. Getting around is also cheap and easy, with shorter taxi journeys costing as little as 50p.

For foodies everywhere, dining in Goa is an absolute delight combining a range of Indian, tandoori and seafood dishes.

The curries were full of distinctive flavours – spicy, but not too hot and never too heavy, like English versions.

If animals are your passion, then a trip to Goa isn't complete without an elephant ride. We spent two days in Shanti, a tiny hamlet within the Bhagwan Mahavir Wildlife Sanctuary, surrounded by natural beauty.

On the first day we were lucky enough to ride a very friendly elephant into a river, where we sat on her back as she sprayed us with cool water. Her reward? Bunches of tasty bananas bought from a local market, followed by a coconut scrub of her leathery skin as she relaxed in the cooling waters.

Away from the towns and villages, Goa has some stunning scenery and much of it is still untouched by mass tourism.

As we watched the sun rise up over the hills I knew I'd definitely be back.

History

Colonised by the Portuguese more than 400 years ago, Goa became absorbed in to India 1961 – becoming a fully fledged state of the republic in 1987. However, it is still the most Westernised part of India with period churches a prominent feature of the landscape. Its mixture of sun, sea and sand saw the state become a hippy haven in the 1960s and it still retains an element of the counter culture. However, the state is now also a popular package holiday destination.

Culture

The people of Goa call themselves Goans and are proud of their homeland. Legends from Hindu mythology credit Lord Parshuram – an incarnation of the god Vishnu – with its creation. Staple food in the state is fish and rice, but some dishes retain a Portuguese influence. Mackerel, crab and lobster are particularly popular and beer is readily available. English is widely spoken, as is the local state language of Konkani and the national Hindi tongue.

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

A loving relationship stirs up all sorts of dramas this week. You've always been very certain about your values, but there's something about your other half that shatters confidence. A childish outburst only adds to your dismay. It's been a long time since you've felt this emotional. Maybe that's a good thing. Love forces you to operate on instinct.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

Working with a friend or partner reveals some hitches in your relationship. You may not be able to contain your anger and it's possible that things will never be the same. Be prepared to face the future on your own. If you do manage to stay together, things need to change. For one thing, you've got to stop burying your feelings beneath a polite veneer.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

A physical injury could be a blessing in disguise. Don't despair if you're forced to change your daily routine in order to heal. Slowing down may be more important than staying in tip-top condition. At times, you will be frustrated that you can't do as much as you'd like. This is also a good time to take up a spiritual practice or study.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

The arrival of a child or lover in your life could result in quite a few upsets. Maybe you don't have sufficient funds or friends won't approve of your amour. Whatever the source of irritation, you need to take a deep breath and assess the situation rationally. It may be necessary to throw time honoured beliefs out the window and try something new.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

A new living arrangement may be imposed on you quite suddenly. It's possible you'll have to find another place or move out of your home temporarily. Although the initial blow will be shocking, you'll gradually come to appreciate the change. Getting a little distance from an oppressive relative or roommate will free you to become more organised.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

You may have to learn a subject by being thrown into an unfamiliar setting. Although an authoritarian expert will probably get on your nerves you would be wise to listen to their advice. There maybe something about this person that makes you angry. Whatever the your frustration, you need to overcome it for the sake of something bigger.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

A new source of income could be coming your way soon, but you're not sure if you really want this money. There seem to be lots of strings attached. You may be enlisted to collect debts or call in a loan. While it pains you to go to these lengths, it is important to get what you are owed. Don't let your generosity undermine your own financial security.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

You're about to undergo a profound personal transformation, and it won't be easy. It's possible a partner or relative makes a remark about your appearance that really stings. If you've gained a lot of weight or have neglected your looks, you need to turn things around. Granted, you'll have to make some painful sacrifices.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

Breaking away from public life may be the only way to heal your broken heart. It's simply too painful to go to the places you visited with a former lover or friend. The positive thing to come out of this situation is a new appreciation for solitary pleasures. Now it's time to turn inward and discover your hidden depths.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

You could be thrust into a group of unfamiliar people, which is really disorienting. These people hold beliefs that seem to be the opposite of yours. To add insult to injury, they seem to want to delve into your private life. Before you lash out against these folks, consider how they could ultimately benefit you. Learn to grin and bear their idiosyncrasies.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

You may be called to account for something you have done that's really irritated a relative or partner. Although you hate being forced to defend yourself that is just what you have to do. Be ready to admit your mistakes. This week marks an important turning point with regard to your reputation. Take responsibility for your actions.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

Others may mock your awkwardness, but don't let that deter you from making the best of a difficult situation. You'll eventually win their admiration by holding your head high. A shocking bit of news could reach you, but try not to jump to conclusions. Keep your distance from an overly aggressive colleague who wants to impose their will on you.

Hop on the fast-food express with Nigella

■ BY ANDY WELCH

"THIS new book is for everyone really," purrs Nigella Lawson, slightly contradicting the introduction of Nigella Express, which claims the recipes are for 'working mums'.

"Of course, it can be used by working mums, but it's good for people who haven't had much experience of cooking," she continues. "Or people who feel recipes are too intimidating for them, as well as those who are good cooks, but don't have the time."

"The recipes are as simple as 1-2-3, which is why I've numbered the methods in the book. 1, cut this, 2, add a little something, and 3, stir it and take it out of the pot; it's done."

Flicking through Nigella's new tome, she would appear to be totally right. Her recipe for classic dessert Eton Mess couldn't be simpler – "Just buy the meringues!" she laughs – while the roast poussin and sweet potato dish, from the glossy picture in the book at least, looks like a delicious new take on an old classic and can be made in just over half an hour.

"That's just a fast version of my mother's roast chicken and roast potatoes, only poussins don't take as long to cook."

The recipe appeared in the first episode of the accompanying BBC Two series, being shown on Mondays, and embodies the message Nigella is trying to get across.

"I'm not taking dishes that should be lovingly cooked for four hours and creating a 30-minute way of doing it," she says. "I'm saying if you don't have enough time to cook a pork shoulder, cook a pork chop instead and I'll show a way to make that equally delicious in the time you have."

"There are such bad connotations of

convenience food," she continues, without stopping for breath. "There's one school of thought that seems to think if you haven't spent hours slaving away, it's not worth it. That's certainly not the school of thought I adhere to."

"I don't believe cooking is about suffering. I'm simply trying to show that good food can be cooked quickly, like my quick chicken stew, or Curry-in-a-Hurry."

"The whole point of this book is proving there isn't just one way to make your life easier, sometimes you want something that you can knock together in 15 minutes after buying the ingredients on your lunch hour or on the way home from work."

"Other times you want to be allowed to sprawl in front of the TV or help your children with their homework, or whatever it is you have on at the weekend, and let the oven take the strain and do the cooking that way."

The new TV series shows the curvaceous cook demonstrate how to make selected concoctions from the book. It's Nigella's fourth to date and her first full series for the BBC. Her three-part festive special last Christmas marked her move over from Channel 4, who had broadcast two runs and a seasonal edition of Nigella Bites, as well as follow-up Forever Summer.

"I'm looking forward to it being on, but there's always a moment of apprehension and excitement. I just hope it does well," she says coyly, before revealing the more self-conscious side to her character, which seems slightly at odds to the talented, confident and, let's face it, beautiful lady we know so well from her TV appearances.

"I don't like looking at myself, so I never watch a finished series. I have shown it to my husband and children, who thought it was great, and my agent loved it. I've got my own little focus group, and the people who know me and love me don't think I've made a fool of myself."

"I'm excited about many of the recipes. I really want people to try them at home because they can make people's lives easier, so you'll be able to spot the slightly evangelical ring to my voice when I talk about them."

PETE MOLINARI: FOLK and blues star Pete Molinari has come a long way since being discovered by cult rocker Billy Childish.

The talented singer/songwriter has become a regular fixture on the intimate Medway circuit, played established acoustic clubs in London and even spent an 18-month stint in New York, performing in the same venues once graced by such folk and blues greats as Woody Guthrie and Bob Dylan.

His choice of instruments – guitar and harmonica – has drawn a lazy comparison with Dylan, but Molinari's soft, touching and seemingly effortless work stands out on its own, according to his many fans.

Molinari plays in London at the Health and Happiness at the Social night, in Little Portland Street, near Oxford Circus, on Tuesday, September 18.

Pete Molinari will feature on yourkenttv.co.uk – go there to upload your band's video.

YES! METRO: INSPIRED by the likes of Interpol, Minus The Bear and The Flaming Lips, 16-year-old Shaun Galvin from Canterbury is Yes! Metro.

Peddling his own brand of riffy geek rock and performing with just a laptop computer and voicebox for company, Yes! Metro shuns the emo scene adopted by so many of his peers, clearly making his priority music rather than fashion.

It's obvious that Yes! Metro looks like one to watch in the future and is fast building an online following on Myspace.

Say yes to Yes! Metro and catch Galvin playing at Canterbury's Orange Street Music Club on Saturday, October 6, as part of its Oxjam night.

Yes! Metro will feature on yourkenttv.co.uk – go there to upload your band's video.

ONE DAY ELLIOTT: MIXING versatility with their own unique sound has proved the key to success for One Day Elliott.

The four-piece rock band from Maidstone have just returned from their second triumphant US tour.

In the UK, One Day Elliott have appeared on the same bill as big acts such as The Fall, Hundred Reasons and Jesse James, and album sales now total more than 5,500. Having been brought to national attention with airplay on Radio One's Lock Up Show, the band certainly appear on their way up.

Vocalist and principal songwriter Paul Richards claims that having influences as diverse as Led Zeppelin and Green Day has helped the band find their own voice. "We all love rock but listen to different styles," he said.

One Day Elliott will feature on yourkenttv.co.uk – go there to upload your band's video.

PROPERTY NEWS

Will a buyer turn their nose up at your home?

SELLING your home? Planning to release the aroma of freshly brewed coffee and home baked bread through your home as the viewings begin? Then stop for a moment. That's SO last season.

According to Alison Cork, presenter of ITV's Homes & Properties, what people want now is for a house to smell clean and fresh.

Neuro-psychologist David Lewis says: "Every house, like every person, has a totally unique signature smell. It's made up of old skin particles, hair, cooking odours, crumbs and dust.

"It's difficult for owners to detect the smell of your own home as your brain becomes used to the scent over time, however to visitors it can be the first thing they notice when they enter a property."

A normal reaction to a strong smell is to want to escape it – not ideal when you're keen to show off your strategically-placed flowers.

Alison's advice is to give each room a really good airing. So fling open the windows and let the scent of the wilds of Wye do the selling for you.

Cash in on the return of the prodigal child

IT'S not just children that are back to school at this time of year. Teenagers are making their way to university, leaving nests empty and parents rattling around in suddenly silent homes.

But now empty-nest syndrome has been replaced by second-nest syndrome, with parents who invest in a property for their child at university able to finance their child's further education and enjoy a substantial return when they sell.

According to Bryant Homes – who have set up a website to help parents search their new developments near universities – key towns such as Manchester, Nottingham, Durham, Bristol and Warwick are expected to provide a 16.5 per cent over a three-year period.

Second-nesters can also feel happy their child is in a safe house with a good landlord (you!), and not facing the perils of freezing conditions, damp and woodworm.

Advice is available on whether second nests should only be purchased if they come with a fully-equipped utility room. Don't bother – studies have shown you will end up doing your child's washing regardless.

WYE THE RUSH? If you're thinking of selling up and moving into a new home before the festive season creeps up on you, now is the time to start searching

The time is right if you want to make a move

■ BY MARNIE SUMMERFIELD

IT'S back to school for children and back to buying and selling for houses in Ashford. A typically busy autumn period in the property market is expected.

Perhaps because now the summer holidays are over, people are not preoccupied with how to occupy children on a wet Wednesday afternoon.

"We're becoming a bargaining nation now," says Ray Pentland from Connells in Ashford. "People are playing their cards quite close to their chest. The people you want to be looking out for are those that are quite open as they are more likely to be genuine sellers.

"People who don't say much might have not have moving plans in place."

But if you're only just recovering from the expense of summer, you won't be pleased to hear that, as far as the housing market goes – Christmas is fast approaching.

It's just 14 weeks away and many people put themselves under immense pressure to get cosy in a new house by Christmas.

Every year estate agents see people putting their house on the market at the end of October or beginning of November and hope they might be somewhere new by Christmas.

The advice is to get going now. Houses can and do complete on Christmas Eve and even sometimes between Christmas and the New Year – but that's hardly a recipe for a relaxing festive season.

The internet has redefined the way we view property. Estate agents' websites are becoming as popular as shopping, dating and celebrity gossip sites. Psychologists believe it satisfies our dual desire to learn more about the way others live and daydream too.

Haart's quarterly housing market report says that buyers overall are prepared to bide their time to avoid paying over the odds. This means sellers are lowering their house price expectations to make homes more tempting.

House prices in the county have gone up 5.6 per cent in the past year to bring the cost of an average house in Kent to £226,402 according to the Land Registry.

In Ashford the average house costs £240,394, an increase of 8.1 per cent for the year. Maidstone is £236,282, up 9.6 per cent while the average house in Canterbury's costs £219,970, an increase of 9.2 per cent.

Dover's average is £189,614, up 11 per cent for the year, and in Shepway a home will cost you £201,566, up 10 per cent compared with a year ago.

On the Isle of Thanet the average house costs £178,936, up 4.9 per cent, and in Swale £175,45, down 3.8 per cent compared with three months ago but still a 2.9 per cent rise for the year.

Across Medway the average house went up 9.4 per cent in 12 months to £171,422.

Car cramming drive for Demelza House

CHILDREN and parents rose to the challenge when SMC Mitsubishi in Sittingbourne asked them how many toys, books and unwanted CDs they could cram into a Mitsubishi Outlander 4x4 in aid of Demelza House Children's Hospice.

SMC Mitsubishi manager Richard Stockwell was overwhelmed by the response: "The Mitsubishi Outlander is a pretty spacious vehicle by anybody's standards, but we could have filled the car three times over with toys, such was the generosity of the local people."

"We are delighted that we have been able to help young people at Demelza in this way and hope the toys will bring them lots of pleasure."

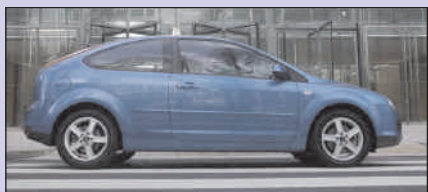

Extended green scheme from Land Rover

BARRETT'S Land Rover has extended a pioneering scheme to offset CO₂ produced by the cars it sells.

The original plan offsets the first 45,000 miles on 2007-model cars, but Barretts of Canterbury and Ashford offers a voluntary extension for pre-2007 Land Rovers and any exceeding 45,000 miles.

Mark Nicholas, of Barretts, said: "Our existing scheme has shown us that drivers want to play an active role in the reduction of greenhouse emissions, and helping the drivers of older vehicles to do the same was the next logical step."

Deals boost new reg deals at SMC Ford

FORD dealer SMC is predicting a bumper September, helped by potential savings of almost £3,000 on some new '57 plate cars.

"Consumer offers we have put on the table for this September's new registration really seem to have caught the public's imagination," said Paul Elligate, regional sales manager for the group, which has Kent sites at Sittingbourne, Gravesend and Crayford.

"For example we are currently offering a massive saving of £2,877 off a brand new Focus Zetec Climate 5 door."

TORQUE ABOUT POWER: The firebreathing 237bhp Seat Leon Cupra out performs the Golf GTI by a few tenths of a second on the sprint to the all-important 60mph

Beast from Barcelona

SEAT launched its latest Leon on TV by suggesting there was a beast on the loose.

With a coupé-style five-door hatchback body that conveyed the impression of a beast about to spring, this was not idle fancy.

But the Spanish arm of the VW Group has since added 'wilder' turbocharged versions; the 197bhp FR and, more recently, the fire-breathing 237bhp Cupra.

This allows the Leon line-up to outgun the VW Golf upon which it is based, with more aggressive style and a Cupra flagship that out-accelerates the Golf GTI by a few tenths of a second in the sprint to 60mph – believe me, this matters to some people.

In reality, it means nothing on our crowded and clogged-up roads, since you can't use such performance properly or safely anyway.

On the other hand, this is a cracking-looking car – note the concealed rear door handles to enhance the coupe styling – and has a rawness that compels you to like it.

At the same time, the Cupra is every bit as well mannered as the Golf GTI, possibly more exciting to drive and some £1,500 cheaper.

It is also more interesting than the Ford Focus ST and far more manageable and practical than the Vauxhall Astra VXR.

No wonder almost half of all Leon sales in the UK are this hot version and the only slightly cooler FR.

It is not as if you have to keep the beast on a leash when traffic is heavy, either, because it pootles along and rides well for a hot hatchback... I still have all my fillings. Give it a prod though and the beast growls from under the bonnet and out of the exhaust.

It will probably never have the prestige or low depreciation of the Golf – since the original 1970s GTI started the whole hot-hatchback thing.

And the interior tries to be clever and ends up looking a bit dull and plasticky, but I back it as a good 'alternative' hot hatch even if you risk bringing out the beast in you.

PART-TIME OPPORTUNITIES TO JOIN A REVOLUTION IN MEDIA

Our newspapers have already received national acclaim, and now we are leading the way in the digital age, and have many part-time opportunities to be a part of this media revolution due for launch in September.

Part-Time Distributors Wanted

Join our award winning team, and earn extra cash.

Our newspapers Kent on Sunday and Kentish Saturday Observer have already received national acclaim and now we will be launching 8 new newspapers in the heart of Kent in September.

Opportunities are available to join our team of "Road Runners" across a number of areas, handing our new papers to the public at strategic points, and delivering copies to shops and businesses.

Each person will have a designated area, and it will involve a minimum of 5 hours work every Wednesday morning from around 6.30am, more hours are available if required.

We will supply promotional clothing, and back up support. You will need to be at ease talking to the public and capable of working under your own initiative, and be of smart appearance as you will become a representative of our award winning company.

There is also a possibility of some promotional work prior to the September launch if you would like additional hours. Good rates of pay, please contact Barbara Coker on 01303 817072

If you are interested, and would like a job description, please contact: Barbara Coker on 01303 817072 or apply in writing to Barbara Coker, Marketing and Distribution Manager,

SALES OUTBOUND AGENTS

£13k - £14k + uncapped commission (OTE £20k+) + outstanding benefits package
Variety of flexible shift patterns | Thanet

Commitment and dedication bring great rewards. That's what we believe at Saga, and that's why you'll enjoy excellent earnings potential, first-rate training, ongoing support and superb benefits.

There's no cold-calling involved. Instead, you'll be contacting people who've already enquired about our range of insurance products. Listening to their needs and suggesting what's right for them, you'll deliver an exceptional service with every call.

While your background could be in sales, customer service or a similar field, what's important is that you're an outstanding communicator who can thrive in this vibrant and target-focused environment. In return, the benefits include private healthcare, pension scheme, an active social club and plenty more.

If it's time you enjoyed the rewards you deserve, then call us now on 01843 342649 for an informal chat or e-mail your CV to cara.moys@saga.co.uk

Advisory Service Kent (ASK) provides specialist curriculum and leadership advice and support to schools and early years settings. The emphasis is on the development of partnerships to share good practice and provide targeted intervention to raise standards. As part of the team, you will build a proactive relationship and be responsible for the identification and commissioning of continuing professional development (CPD) of educational and multi-agency staff. As a self-motivated team player, working on your own initiative, you will be responsible for the liaison and developments within two of the Local Learning Networks centred in either East, Mid, or West Kent. You will be required to attend appropriate meetings in the area as well as liaising with the central administrative delivery team. This post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure Application to the Criminal Records Bureau. Essential car user allowance available. For an informal discussion, please contact Jonathan Gershon or Celia Pocock on 01622 203800. To apply visit www.kent.gov.uk/jobs.

SALARY:
£20,004 - £24,444 + essential user car allowance
COMPANY:
Shepway District Council
Shepway District Council is a forward looking organisation that aims to improve the quality of life of all its citizens and to ensure that it takes into account the views of all sectors of the local community. In order to help us to meet these aims, an experienced, confident and enthusiastic individual is required to help us develop a portfolio of projects aimed at enhancing the services available for children and young people across the district. You will possess relevant qualifications and have a minimum of two years experience in delivering youth related projects. You must be an effective communicator with strong presentation skills and have the ability to work on your own initiative. You should have the skills required to develop and maintain partnerships with a variety of agencies and groups of young people. As well as possessing a positive approach to working with young people and encouraging the development of opportunities for the young people of Shepway, you will be required to maintain records and produce reports. If you think you can make a positive contribution to the opportunities for young people in Shepway we would like to hear from you. Due to the nature of the position you will be subject to an Enhanced Disclosure application to the Criminal Records Bureau. For an informal discussion, please contact Len Mayatt, Cultural & Leisure Services Manager on 01303 853322 or email len.mayatt@shepway.gov.uk or Tamasin Jarrett, Youth Development Officer on 01303 853277 or email tamasin.jarrett@shepway.gov.uk For an application form either download at www.shepway.gov.uk or email jobs@shepway.gov.uk or call our 24 hour answer phone service on 01303 853481. Closing date for completed applications is Friday 21 September 2007. Interviews will be held shortly after the closing date. We would like the successful applicant to commence duties early November. Shepway District Council is an Equal Opportunities Employer and welcomes applications irrespective of race, colour, age, sex or disability.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Surveyor's boost with new recruit

ORBITAL Park-based commercial chartered surveyor Taylor Riley has appointed Richard Stafford a director.

Stafford is a familiar face within the town's commercial quarter, having chaired the Chamber of Commerce for two years when it was the Ashford Chamber.

It is now Kent Invicta Chamber of Commerce, the British Chamber of Commerce accredited Chamber for Ashford, Canterbury, Maidstone and Thanet.

Stafford's arrival follows 22 years service with Colyer Commercial.

He joins Michael Taylor and William Geering boosting Taylor Riley's team in the industrial, retail and office property sectors, as it looks to service increasing demands from the investment and development sectors.

SMEs warned not to spend taxman's money

CASH-STRAPPED businesses are being warned to avoid dipping into funds earmarked for the taxman, a financial specialist has warned.

Although often done with the intention of catching up in subsequent months, the practice is a high-risk strategy if the business continues to underperform, explains Mike Lee, a director at Corporate Strategies, part of the UK business advisory group DTE.

He said: "Some SMEs are particularly vulnerable to the tax arrears pitfall because they don't have a finance director or an in-house accountant or if they operate in complicated industries. The directors of an SME sometimes don't know they are struggling until they are deep into the mire of tax arrears."

FAST TRACK TO SUCCESS: Thameside regeneration including the new Ebbsfleet International Station, will be discussed at a public meeting tonight

IT'S ONE of the biggest regeneration projects in Europe – and likely to provide business opportunities across the county.

And tonight a public meeting takes place with top officials discussing the latest update on the housing and employment explosion in the Kent Thameside area as part of the Thames Gateway project.

It is estimated around 30,000 new homes and 50,000 jobs will be created in and around the region – with the new Ebbsfleet International station at its heart – sparking a host of possibilities to boost business for firms up and down Kent.

Speakers will include Paul Williams, deputy chief executive of the Kent Thameside Delivery Board (KTDB) – the body set up to develop the area between Dartford and Gravesend.

He will discuss the enhanced community

BY GARETH ARNOLD

and environment facilities planned for the site

A key concern of the KTDB is to develop 'economic and business competitiveness'.

The meeting takes place as part of Kent County Council's Dartford Local Board.

Chairman of the board, Bertie Bassam, said: "The Kent Thameside regeneration project will have a huge impact on the lives of local residents. This is a wonderful opportunity to find out more about what is planned for the area and the likely impact on us all."

"It is such good news to have Ebbsfleet International Station opening so close to us. It will be good to find out more about this and Fastrack links as well. There is no need to book for this meeting, please just come along."

Also speaking will be representatives of Fastrack, the transit network set-up to link the new developments in the area, and launched in spring last year.

David George, Fastrack project manager, will talk about the success of his firm's efforts after nearly 18 months of operation and give an update on the recently-opened route which serves The Bridge development at Dartford and surrounding areas.

He will also explain how Fastrack will provide connections to Ebbsfleet International Station and the new Eurostar services which start in November.

Doors for the meeting open at 6.30pm for a 7pm start at the Swanscombe and Greenhithe Town Council offices at The Grove, Swanscombe.

Gillingham chairman Paul Scally talks to our new online TV channel

A nice try but Ashford lose

ASHFORD Rugby Club had a good pre-season workout at Whitstable but faded late on to lose 23-16.

Whitstable were Kent League 1 champions last season but for much of the game the gap in class was not obvious.

With 10 minutes to go Ashford were just two points adrift, but several late penalties from Whitstable gave the score line a different look.

Despite finishing on the losing side, first team captain Paul Lake was pleased overall with the game.

He said: "The lads pulled off a sterling performance. The forwards were outstanding for 65 minutes and the backs were in control but a slight lack of fitness and discipline at the end cost us the win."

Lake singled out fly-half Duncan McKay, who kicked extremely well from hand on his first appearance in the first team.

Another positive was the return of Joe Lakin, who has been out of the team for some time. He came back and played well on the wing.

Solid start ruined as late brace sinks Town

SOLID START: But Ashford failed to capitalise on a good spell of early pressure and despite taking the lead, two late Corinthian Casuals goals saw them lose at Homelands

TWO goals in the final five minutes proved too much for Ashford Town as they slumped to their second Ryman Division One South defeat this season against Corinthian Casuals 2-1.

Ashford started the match brightly and had Casuals penned into their own half forcing them to make their defenders work to clear the danger.

On six minutes Town had their first chance when Tony Browne's run down the wing and cross fell to Charlie Glyde who shot over the bar.

Corinthians had a spell of pressure minutes later when a shot from Greg Andrews was charge down by the Ashford defence.

Town had a chance to break the deadlock when Rob Deness turned the last Casuals defender, only to see his shot trickle marginally wide.

FOOTBALL

■ BY TOM HOWARD

Ashford's best chance of the first half came just after the half hour mark when a poor Corinthian back pass was pounced on by Town striker Walid Matata, who rounded the stranded goalkeeper but was unable to slide the ball home.

Just before the break Casuals thought they had taken the lead when a goal by captain Chris Horwood was disallowed after the ref spotted some pushing in the area leaving the score 0-0 at half-time at Homelands.

Finally the deadlock was broken on 55 minutes when Ashford striker Matata ran around the Casuals defence and fired the ball into the top corner of the net.

The Nuts and Bolts could have doubled their lead just five minutes later when a through pass found Deness in the area and his low drive was palmed away by the Casuals' keeper.

Corinthians slowly began to pressure the Town defence as the half entered the last 20 minutes and had a chance to equalise when a back pass fell to the feet of Corinthian striker Simon Mitchell, who shot straight at the advancing keeper.

The pressure and Town's slack defending turned into an equaliser for Corinthians as Jemal Carr's strike on 85 minutes found the bottom corner of the Ashford net.

As injury time approached it seemed like a draw was on the cards but deep into added time, Corinthian substitute Joe Loyza rose to head the winner from a free kick.

Ashford now lie 13th in the league. Last night they faced the Montserrat national side at the Homelands.

Dobriskey leading the way for Ashford's athletes

ROLE MODEL: Lisa Dobriskey is an inspiration to Ashford's up-and-coming young athletes

MIDDLE distance runner Lisa Dobriskey left Ashford five years ago for Loughborough University, but her performances are inspiring the next generation of athletes at the club she still competes for, writes David Pritchard.

The 23-year-old ran in the 1500 metres at the World Athletics Championships a fortnight ago in the stiffest test of her career to date, and her achievements have not gone unnoticed by the young members of Ashford Athletics Club.

Chief coach Stella Bandu, who nurtured Dobriskey for seven years, thinks her most successful protégé is still playing an important role with the current crop of hopefuls.

ATHLETICS

She said: "I think a lot of the youngsters are interested in what Lisa is up to."

"It is genuinely nice for them to see her on TV as a member of our club, I think that is quite important."

The 2006 Commonwealth champion looked set to make the final in Osaka, but one of her spikes came off in a collision midway through the semi final. After that she was unable to challenge for the qualification places, but finished a creditable 10th.

David Jedrzejewski trained with Dobriskey for four years and is still heavily involved with the club. He has noticed the runners he coaches talking about the club's most successful member.

He said: "The last couple of weeks people have been asking when she is running. There has definitely been a buzz around the club because of what Lisa is doing."

Although she trains at the cutting edge facilities in Loughborough, Dobriskey still returns occasionally for club events.

Next year is the Beijing Olympics, where she will have another chance to inspire the young hopefuls at Ashford AC to follow in her footsteps.

Triple champion laps up success

RECENTLY crowned three-time world champion Tim Reeves was in action in the final round of the World Sidecar Championship at Le Mans on Sunday.

Reeves, from Tenterden, and his partner Patrick Farrance secured the Superside FIM World Sidecar Championship last time out in Croatia with a win and a third place in the two races.

To add to the outstanding achievement of winning three consecutive world titles, Reeves also broke the lap record at the Zagreb track, which had stood for more than 10 years.

Reeves said: "I am over the moon. The first one was good and the second was better but this year has been the hardest fight of all."

On Sunday the pair went to compete in the last round of the championship at the famous Le Mans track in France.

This circuit is new for the World Sidecar fraternity and provided a significant challenge for the Ashford racer.

Ahead of the event he said: "I will still be looking to win even though the title race is over. I don't like to lose but it would be nice to be able to relax and enjoy the race."

The pair are also competing in the British Sidecar Championship and are in the lead of that series having won every round this year.

They will be in action at their home circuit Brands Hatch on September 29 and 30.

As for next season, Reeves will hope to compete in the championship and will be gunning for a fourth consecutive title.

TWO QUICK: Tim Reeves and partner Patrick Farrance clinched world title in Croatia

Team ethic guides Ants to top of hill

PROMOTED: Ashford Cricket Club celebrate after an excellent season which saw them lose just two out of their 18 matches to clinch the Kent Cricket League Division Three title

ASHFORD Cricket Club have enjoyed one of their most successful seasons since their championship wins in the 70s and 80s by winning the Kent Cricket League Division Three title.

The first-XI went through this season's campaign only losing two out of 18 matches. Coupled with this success, the second-XI gained promotion by finishing runners-up to Bromley Common in their league.

Now two weeks on from winning the league first team captain Julian Day reflects on a successful season at the Ball Lane ground.

CRICKET

BY TOM HOWARD

He said: "Well there were so many varied high points this year – obviously winning the league is one but there were some great individual performances this season."

"Stuart Paine's performances of two match-winning 60s is one I will remember."

The clearly delighted skipper said: "Another was Liam Tegg's century against rivals Holmesdale in the penultimate match of the season, which was crucial for us. Our highest score of the year came against Old Stacians when we declared with 320 on the board, which was fantastic."

"The fact we only lost two games – both strange results against lower-placed sides – shows how well the season went. Everyone pitched in and we ended up with ten batsmen recording 50s throughout the year."

Next season the Ants will play in Kent League Division Two. It is something Day is looking forward to. He said: "We'll be OK in the new division. The sides that went up this year have done well and are no worse than us."

"In fact Tenterden, who we have beaten recently, have had two consecutive promotions. It would be lovely if we could gain another promotion."

SPORT IN BRIEF

Golf stars of the future on course at Chart Hills

CHART Hills Golf club is open to the public this week as it hosts a tournament featuring future stars.

The European Tour first qualifying stage event began yesterday and concludes on Friday, with entrants including Guy Woodman, a recent PGA Europro Tour winner, and the club's own Luke Gough.

General manager Rod Park said: "It's hugely entertaining – even if it is frustrating for handicappers to see how well they hit the ball."

Stacians aiming to bowl out of season with a win

THE Old Stacians Cricket Club will look to end the season on a high when the first team host local rivals Tenterden.

Both sides are languishing in the bottom half of the Lords East Kent League Division One Table after disappointing seasons.

In the same fixture last year, Tenterden won comfortably by 116 runs, with Andrew Crawford top scoring on 67.

The game at Goat Lea Park starts on Sunday at 2pm.

Wrighty up front for All Stars footy show

IAN Wright hosts a brand new TV football show later this month, when Ashford Town's director of football strategy fronts Sky One's Premier League All Stars.

The programme will feature teams of ex-professionals including Ruud Gullit, Fabrizio Ravenelli and Paul Merson representing the 20 Premier League teams.

They will play alongside celebrities turning out for the teams they support, with everyone raising money for the clubs' chosen charities.

The series begins on September 23.

Beeb launch new hunt for sport's unsung heros

THE search is on for local individuals who go the extra mile to improve the lives of others through sport.

The BBC Sports Unsung Hero Award is looking for people working behind the scenes in sports clubs who deserve recognition.

Winners from 15 regions will be shortlisted, each receiving up to £2,500 to help with their work in sport.

The winner will be named at the Sports Personality of the Awards in December.

Nominations can be made at www.bbc.co.uk/sportsunsunghero, until Saturday November 3.
